Important:

- Once the seat allotment results are published on the University website, the candidates can log in to the university admission portal here to view their allotment letter.
- Before paying the seat acceptance fee, please review the allotted branch and other details mentioned in the allotment letter. Payment can be made online using a debit card, credit card, net banking, or UPI.
- On the payment page, you may choose the freeze or float option before paying the seat acceptance fee.
- If you choose the freeze option, your allotted branch will remain the same in subsequent allotment rounds. If you choose the float option, your allotted branch may be upgraded to a higher-preference branch as indicated in your application form.
- If a candidate fails to pay the seat acceptance fee on or before the due date, the allotment will be canceled, and the same seat will be allotted to another candidate in the subsequent round of allotment based on the merit list.
- Please note that the counseling schedule may change due to unavoidable circumstances.
